

2010 Faculty of Arts Internship Award Recipients

Department of Geography

Caroline Donohue, U3 Geography and IDS

Equitas—International Centre for Human Rights Education
Montreal, Canada

Caroline is a summer 2010 intern at Equitas International Centre for Human Rights Education in Montreal QC, a Canadian international organization devoted to human rights education. Passionate about traveling and human rights issues, Caroline is looking forwards to gaining valuable experience working on the International Human Rights Training Program held in June. This internship will expose her to the inner workings of an organization, as well as allow her to meet people working in the field of International Development across the world.

Anastasia Frank, U2 Geography and Sociology

Kibale Health and Conservation Centre
Kibale National Park, Uganda

Anastasia is a summer 2010 intern at the Kibale Health and Conservation Center at Kibale National Park in Uganda, a clinic that provides care as well as health outreach and education for local communities. She has been involved with public health organizations since her early teens through various non-profits, clubs and internships. On campus Anastasia is active as an International Buddy, VP External of the Trivia Club, an editor for the Undergraduate Sociology Journal Verstehen, and a student employee at the ICS Service Desk. Her time at the KHCC will give Anastasia the opportunity to experience community-oriented health work outside of a North American context, which will serve as a valuable precursor to a Masters of Public Health degree.

Kathryn Dingle, U3 Geography and Economics

Makerere University
Kampala, Uganda

Kathryn is a summer 2010 intern at Makerere University in Uganda as a field research assistant. At McGill, Kathryn was a Residences Floor Fellow and active in the Outdoors Club. She hopes to build upon previous internship experience in conservation and development work with this unique research opportunity that will allow her to explore new areas of academic and professional interest.

The Faculty of Arts Internship Awards are generously funded by alumni, staff and friends of McGill University. Thank you!

A special thanks to the faculty, administrative staff and advisors that support the Faculty of Arts Internship Program.
